

Strategy Management - Innovation Day Event Details and Agenda

Description

The Enterprise Architecture and Strategy team is hosting a Strategy Management Event on the next Innovation Day (March 7, 2018) from 9AM to Noon. We will build on Aaron's blog post and Level 0 SoaP (Aaron's Blog: Some things never change; some things always do, Jan 10, 2018). The draft agenda for the day and registration link is below (registration not mandatory but we would love to have a headcount ahead of time).

Join your peers across UW-IT to:

- Understand UW-IT's current strategic Areas of Focus
- Turn your ideas into potential projects
- Find collaborators for potential projects
